

Mr. Michael Powell, Chair of the FCC:

I urge you not to support or press for the rule change allowing greater concentration of broadcast ownership. At the very least you should reveal the language of the rule change and open it to public debate. This change will undermine further the diversity of our broadcast media and thus the quality of our democracy. Such a rule change is unconscionable.